Art Unit: 3662

1. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In independent claims 1 and 7, the uses of "and/or" and "or" are indefinite.

On lines 3-4 of claim 1, it is unclear if the phrase "interleaving them along with " means that the header is interleaved with the payload due to the use of the pronoun "them".

In claim 6, "eliminating/using" and "empty/idle" are indefinite.

In claim 7, "incorrect/correct" is indefinite. Dependent claims 2-6 and 8-9 are unclear as dependent from claims 1 and 7.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pizzi et al ('380).

As indicated in the U.K search report, Pizzi et al ('380) is an X reference for all the claims.

Lines 3-26 of page 19 of the reference show the claim 1 and 7 interleaving. The further limitations of the dependent claims are fully met by the applied reference.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lutz et al is of general interest for showing synchronizing ATM transmissions.
